Baptist Wedding Etiquette? | Yahoo Answers

Most Baptist churches don't allow alcohol on the premises, even for weddings. If the reception is off-site, it will primarily depend on the bride and groom. My fiancé and I are Baptist, but we will be having alcohol at our reception. For an evening wedding, which is generally more formal than an afternoon wedding, black and grey are always acceptable.

Bible Speaks to Marriage

Planning the Wedding Ceremony As you plan your wedding ceremony, please keep a few things in mind... Be sure to secure the services of a competent director to help you coordinate the ceremony. The purpose of a Christian wedding is to "start off" two Christians in a Christian marriage. It is a joyful, and fun, and Christian, and serious occasion.
